

Tate Britain displays British art from 1500 to today. Yes, it's a museum, but it's also like a big living room. All those works of art are yours.

Create your own Collection.

Tate Britain
Millbank
London SW1P 4RG

Admission free
Tickets and Membership
020 7887 8888

Visit www.tate.org.uk

 Pimlico  Millbank Pier

Opening hours 10.00–17.50 daily
Late opening first Friday of each month until 22.00

The I LIKE YELLOW Collection

Create your own Collection online at www.tate.org.uk/britain

William Holman Hunt Cornfield at Ewell
Frederic, Lord Leighton Lieder ohne Worte

Ivon Hitchens Arno No. 5
© The estate of Ivon Hitchens

Wyndham Lewis The Crowd © Wyndham Lewis and the estate of Mrs G A Wyndham Lewis by kind permission of the Wyndham Memorial Trust (a registered charity)

JMW Turner St Benedetto, Looking towards Fusina

BP British Art Displays 1500–2007

Supported by BP

BRITAIN

TATE

The I LIKE YELLOW Collection

Well, there's no need for much of an introduction here. Like yellow? Here are some of the most exquisite shades of yellow that we have. Cornfield at Ewell – artists have always been obsessed with yellow: from William Holman Hunt to Coldplay.

room
14

Frederic, Lord Leighton's Lieder ohne Worte couldn't express better the mood of this Collection. This was the first significant work that Leighton painted after he returned to London from his studies on the continent.

room
15

room
24

This painting is of a bridge and a river. The sweeps of vibrant colour over bare canvas suggest the reflection of trees and light over the water - and there's even some yellow in it for you. Beautiful.

The scones in the Café are an empty canvas. Enjoy them.

This painting shows the behaviour of people in crowds and how they become dwarfed by the large architecture in cities, but we thought you'd like it as it has lots of different shades of yellow, (and brown).

room
19

Finally there's nothing like the yellow glow of a sunset. This is JMW Turner's St Benedetto Looking Towards Fusina – exquisite.

room
9

Hope you enjoyed the trip. If you like specific collections you might also like the I Like Hats Collection which is coming soon... Stand by.

