Our grounds

- We sketched the grounds of our school.
- We also sketched what we could see beyond them.

We thought about our school.

- We thought about what our school symbols are.
- We thought about what they meant.
- We devised coats of arms to show our important symbols.

Some of the coats of arms we designed.

We wrote poems about Oak trees.
They are our school symbol.

An Oak tree poem...

An oak tree. Seem'd tall and strong
Like a warrior heading for battle,
Their legs are wide, their arms are long
All through the summer days they shade the cattle,
Their long green pages point at me
As if to say in their cups upon the branches,
There are many types of this tree
Thousands of acorns scattered on the ground,
100 years later maybe all cut down
They lay there quite dead and alone.
