Tobias Rehberger

Frankfurt-based artist Tobias Rehberger has been specially commissioned to transform the Tate Liverpool Cafe into a three-dimensional work of art. The artist has created a vibrant installation that combines coloured acrylic glass garlands branching out of the ceiling with a prominent wall installation, merging text with graphic elements executed also in acrylic glass. The text reads "Together a New Liverpool", but is arranged in a manner that suggests a number of poetic variations such as "To Get Her a New Liver/Pool" a comment on the city's current renaissance.

Tate Liverpool Cafe is open the same hours as the gallery.
